FINE WINES - SERVED BY THE GLASS - USING THE CORAVIN METHOD

125ML 175ML 50CL BTL

VIE CAVE MALBEC, FATTORIA ALDOBRANDESCA, ITALY 2013 9 11.5 32 48

Malbec is of course most famously used for Argentinian wines, though its origins actually trace back to Bordeaux. However, it is not a commonly produced grape in Italy, so this is something quite unusual and interesting. This wine is made by an estate owned by Antinori, the oldest winemaking family in Italy and still a pioneering producer. It is given a generous 24 months in oak- if you're a fan of Chianti and Tignanello, make sure you try this.

CHATEAUNEUF DU PAPE, DOMAINE BEAURENARD, FRANCE 2013 12 16 44 67

Chateauneuf Du Pape is a small wine producing region in the Rhone with a reputation for producing some of the best wines France has to offer. This is a mature style of wine, consisting mostly of Grenache. On the palate you can expect cooked red fruit, strawberry, complexity and intensity. Chateauneuf Du Pape is the wine that Cotes du Rhone wishes it could be.

BACHELORS BLOCK SHIRAZ, EBENEZER, AUSTRALIA 2015 14 18.5 52 77

If you like full bodied red wines with well concentrated flavour that partner richly flavoured dishes- this could be just the tipple for you. The grapes are from a single plot, and this fine wine release from Thistledown is given a whopping 20 months in French Oak for deep flavour. On the palate you can taste dense, smoky black fruits and beautifully polished, glossy and succulent tannins. We have a limited amount of this wine, so get it while you can.

PAZO TIZON EXTRAMUNDI, RIBEIRO, GALICIA 2016 8 10.5 29 42

A lesser known but highly rated wine from the Ribeiro region in Galicia. It is compromised of a blend of grapes, Albarino being well recognised, with a supporting cast of Treixadura, Godello and Loureira. An excellent accompaniment to seafood, you'll find juicy citrus, honey and fennel on the palate, with a mineral finish. The winemaker is Oscar Aragon, who also makes the popular Cillar de Silos wines on our list.

KIT'S COTY CHARDONNAY, CHAPEL DOWN, KENT, ENGLAND 2014 10 13 35 54

If you ever had doubts about English wines, it might be time to put them to bed with a glass of this- a wild ferment Chardonnay from Kent which has been matured in French oak for 9 months. Aromas of melon and peach. A palate of nicely integrated oak balances tropical fruit. Clean, fresh finish.

ST AUBIN IER CRU EN MONTCEAU, DOMAINE MARC COLIN, FRANCE 2014 12 16 45 68

St Aubin is an increasingly popular appellation in Burgundy- located mostly to the west of well revered Chassagne-Montrachet. This particular Premier Cru from Marc Colin is an excellent introduction to fine white Burgundy, and also a good go-to for the more seasoned Burgundy drinker. A well balanced wine that won't disappoint. The nose is enticing with yellow fruit, lemon and nectarine and the palate has a crisp acidity- it's fresh, and it's vibrant.
